

may apply, upon notice, to a Judge of the Court in which the action is brought, to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and the affidavits on which the injunction was granted, or upon the affidavits on the part of the defendant, with or without the answer.

§196—Affidavits on motion.

If the application be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other proofs, in addition to those on which the injunction was granted.

CHAPTER IV.

ATTACHMENT.

§197.—Property of foreign corporations, and of non-resident, or absconding, or concealed defendants, may be attached.

In an action arising on contract, for the recovery of money only, or in an action for the wrongful conversion of personal property, against a corporation created by, or under, the laws of any other State, government or country, or against a defendant who is not a resident of this State, or against a defendant who has absconded or concealed himself, or whenever any person or corporation is about to remove any of his, or its property, from this State, or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete, any of his, or its, property, with intent to defraud creditors, as hereinafter mentioned, the plaintiff at the time of issuing the summons, or [at] any time afterwards, may have the property of such defendant or corporation attached, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, as a security for the satisfaction of such judgment as the plaintiff may recover; and for the purposes of this section, an action shall
